YASHADA is a premier institute of the Government of Maharashtra with over four decades of experience, and meets the training and research needs of State and Union government departments, elected representatives and NGOs. With various specialized centers and cells, Yashada imparts training to over 20,000 functionaries each year in every aspect of governance and development administration.

Dr. Ambedkar Competitive Examination Center (ACEC) was set up at YASHADA, Pune, in May 2006, under the Schedule Caste Sub Plan (SCSP) to provide coaching for Civil Services Examination, to the youth of Maharashtra especially from the weaker section of the society. ACEC aims at tapping the talent in students, encouraging them to appear for Civil Services Examination and facilitating their preparation for the UPSC examination.

Objectives of ACEC:

- *To create awareness among the youth of Maharashtra, specially from the deprived sections, about aims and objectives, procedures and relative advantages of various competitive examinations particularly Civil Services Examination.
- *To inculcate in them the culture of serving the community and the nation.
- *To plan and conduct coaching and training programmes for successful participation in competitive examination.
- *To muster support for coaching from eminent administrators, academicians and professional experts from management, training and research institutions.

Keeping in view the entrance examination for selection of deserving candidates for ACEC, the Centre For Talent Search and Excellence (CTSE) was invited to conduct the said examination.

About our Partner - CTSE

Centre For Talent Search and Excellence (CTSE) was established in 1985 in Nowrosjee Wadia College, Pune with the objective of inculcating a competitive spirit amongst the school students. This led to the Maharashtra Talent Search (M.T.S.) project which aimed at unearthing and identifying hidden talent in the rural and urban students in the schools from Maharashtra.

In 2009 this immensely popular MTS examination was conducted for about 84,000 students at 533 centres across Maharashtra, Gujarat, Goa and Karnataka.

For the last 3 years CTSE has been conducting the graduate excellence examinations GEE in Maharashtra for undergraduate students of all disciplines to equip them for various competitive examinations after graduation.
